Antivirus Software

Protection from harmful viruses, malware and other external threats.

What is Antivirus Software?

Antivirus Software is used on electronic devices to ensure IT hardware remains uncompromised and protected from harmful viruses, malware and other external threats.

Cybercriminals are constantly evolving their technology and methods to breach business defences. Our antivirus offering combats this with the continuous development of its own technologies.

How Antivirus protects you

ESET antivirus is our recommended solution, as a global security provider founded over 30 years ago, they are dedicated to helping businesses secure their data against ever-evolving computer threats.

Businesses have a duty to ensure they keep data secure. Keeping your business data protected from external threats is made easy when you use ESET AV as it provides a multi-layered approach paired with smart technologies to proactively protect end-user machines from any external intrusion.

ESET provides the most advanced security against malware, using a combination of endpoint-based and cloud-augmented technologies.

ESET Protect Complete

There are a range of features included within ESET complete and include:

- On-premise console
- Advanced Endpoint Security
- Mail Security
- Cloud Console
- Cloud Sandboxing
- Cloud Office Security
- Basic Endpoint Protection
- Full Disk Encryption

Setup is tailored based on individual business needs.
